

QUOTATIONS AT MARKET

LOWER THAN WEEK AGO

Mutton Shows Drop of Five, Other
Fresh Meats Two to Three Cents a Pound.

Sea Food, Except Bass, Which Is Higher, Remains at Former Prices.

With benches piled high with good things for the table the markets this morning presented an attractive appearance. As a general thing the prices seem to tend somewhat lower than those of last week, but no heavy reductions are to be noted on any particular article.

In the meat market, veal, mutton, sliced bacon and pork shoulder all show lower prices, the drop in mutton being five cents a pound and on other meats from two to three cents a pound. The scarcity of sea bass has caused an advance, but otherwise sea food is selling at the prices of last week.

Salsify, parsnips, mushrooms and celery cabbage are coming on the produce benches in quantities. Salsify is selling at 8 cents a pound, parsnips at 10 cents a quarter peck, mushrooms at 65 cents a pound, and celery cabbage at 3 and 10 cents a head.

In the fruit market persimmons have made their appearance. They are not the kind that grow wild in the woods in this section, but are the big sweet cultivated ones from Florida and they are selling at 20 cents a dozen. Basket grapes from New York and the north are somewhat lower in prices this week and plums, both home-grown and western, have practically disappeared from the market. Apples and pears are also becoming more plentiful and are selling at prices that put them within the reach of all who are fond of fruit.

DRIP IN FISH PRICES.

Follows Increased Supplies at Wharf

Market From Seacoast Fisheries.

Increased supplies of fresh fish from the seacoast fisheries have caused a considerable drop in prices. The high figures of last week, though prices on some varieties of fish are still considerably above the average. The dealers state that receipts are becoming larger each day and it is only a question of a short time before the wharf market will be again selling at low figures, provided no more easterly storms come and interfere with fishing operations.

The supply on hand at the wharf market this morning was fair and prices ranged about as follows: Butter, fish, $11 a barrel; gray trout, large, $10 a barrel; gray trout, small, $6.50 a barrel; croakers, $10 to $11 a barrel; flounders, $6.50 to $7 a barrel; sea bass, 12 1/2 cents a pound; rock, 10 to 12 1/2 cents a pound; Spanish mackerel, 10c to 12 cents a pound; carp, 4 to 5 cents a pound; black bass, 20 to 25 cents a pound; white perch, 10 to 12 cents a pound; mullets, 10 to 15 cents a pound; catfish, 25 to 30 cents a bunch, and wellow perch, 15 to 25 cents a bunch. Oysters, crabs and clams are fairly plentiful and are in demand at moderate prices.

Still Favors Alexander Bill.

President Wilson announces that he still favors the Alexander bill for the purchase of merchant vessels by a government-controlled company and expects it to be passed during the present session of Congress. He thinks this legislation necessary to provide for work which private enterprise would not do.
The Alexander bill probably will be taken up in the Senate early next week under a special rule.

After advertising for a wife and receiving a number of replies from many sections of the state, Samuel M. Wen-der, twenty-seven years old, near Frederick, Md., took out a license to marry Little A. Harbough, a widow, formerly of Key-Mar, Carroll county.
